

Reading Camp in Huntington! July 6-10, 2015

Join us for Reading Camp this Summer !

Reading camp is a tuition free program for children who need a “boost” to help them improve their reading skills. Camp includes 3 hours of reading instruction each day, taught by local teachers in the areas of Reading Comprehension, Creative Writing, Strategies, Phonics, Pleasure Reading and Sight Words. Afternoons include fun, games, field trips

Huntington's Reading Camp

... sponsored by St. John's Episcopal Church and the Episcopal Churches of Huntington

Reading camp helps children who are at least one year behind in reading skills improve their reading, build self confidence, grow a love of reading and learning and stem summer learning loss.

Reading Camp will be held in Huntington July 6-10 from 8:30 to 3:30 at St. John's Episcopal Church, student transportation provided to and from Marcum Terrace Community Center, all others provide their own transportation. Lunch included for all children.

Volunteer to help children in our community!

Teachers! Will you help?

We need Teachers 5 mornings from 8:30 a.m. until noon. We pair teachers in one of six stations along with a teachers aid and youth helpers (if needed). The children come through in groups of 5 for each 30 minute session.

The last two year's event were inspiring and important for the children, teachers and staff. We could use your help for all of the days or some of the days. Teachers are welcome to attend our field trips as well. We love having your participation in whatever way suits your schedule!

Thank you!
